Our MAST team provide peer support in Bradford Royal Infirmary and Airedale General Hospital as well as follow-up support in the community. We work alongside other partner organisations to offer specialist support around different areas of mental and physical health, as well as with other challenges. The aim is to help people get the right support at the right time, in the right place.

Reach

You can use the Reach service if you are currently being supported by Bradford District NHS Care Trust in a secondary mental health service, for example, a Community Mental Health Team.

We can:

- provide one-to-one support for up to 6 months with a named worker, identifying your personal goals and working together to help you to achieve them
- support you at important times of change, for example, if you have had a period in a mental health hospital
- help you access groups and other services based on where you live and your interests

What's important is that we will be working together on what you want to achieve, in the way you would like to achieve it.

Your lead professional can make a referral on your behalf.

HOPE

Our HOPE team are here to help if you have a history of significant trauma and struggle to access other support which meets your needs. You will receive one-to-one sessions from our peer support workers who have their own lived experience of mental health difficulties. We can provide support over a period of 12 weeks to help you move forwards with your mental health and to achieve your goals.

You can access this service through your GP, care coordinator or other mental health professionals.

I feel in a much better place now, able to cope with things. It helped being able to speak to someone and get off my chest how I was feeling.
